

1868

1912 Dates J-BK

(1830-1904) ISABELLA II

Queen of Spain (1833-1868). Daughter of Ferdinand VII. The Salic law was set aside to permit her to succeed her father. Her mother MARIA CHRISTINA was regent. DON CARLOS, her uncle, should have succeeded Ferdinand and a rebellion in his favor reigned with violence in 1840. In consequence of the rebellion in 1868, Isabella fled to France and in 1870 she abdicated.

in favor of her son ALFONSO XII. He came to the throne in 1875 after a brief reign of Amadeus of Savoy and the failure of the republic under CASTELAR.